

Prince William County
Juvenile and Domestic Relations
District Court

POLICY STATEMENT

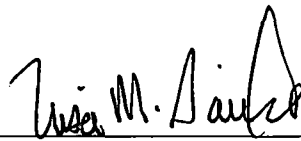

JDR Court Model Discovery

Effective July 1, 2015 the court adopted Model Interrogatories and Model Requests for Documents in Custody/Visitation and Support Cases, which will be authorized by the Court at the first hearing.

The court requires practicing attorneys to use the Model Interrogatories and Model Requests for Documents in Custody/Visitation and Support Cases, absent good cause shown. No objections to Model Discovery will be sustained by the judges of the Prince William County Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court.

Model Discovery Documents are available for use at www.pwcgov.org/jdr.

Order Compelling Discovery: If you have not provided your complete response to discovery within 21 days, there will be an Order entered compelling complete responses from the date the discovery responses were originally due, with no attorney's fees awarded.

Lisa M. Baird
Chief Judge

6/14/17

Date